Floor 1 offers you 40 m² of space to build an independent apartment, a gymnasium, or an extra suite.

Floor 2 offers the main entrance hall, two complete suites with their own terrace, a visitor's restroom and laundry room and an indoor staircase that leads you to the next floor.

Floor 3 offers an 80 m² wide-open space for the design kitchen by Porcelanosa, living room and dining room. From the living room you have direct access to the master bedroom and to the main 150 m² terrace and the infinity pool. From the kitchen you have access to the kitchen terrace and a staircase to the roof and solarium and the rest of the plot.

This villa offers underfloor heating in all the house and independent air-conditioning systems for each room through a very efficient aerothermal system by Daikin.

A smart home KNX system by Jung will always keep you in touch with the house regardless of where you are.

The main terrace presents a 25 m² BBQ area, an outside bathroom, and the pool shower. No need to go in the house as you have everything right there.

But it is not only the views and the unique design that are superb. The quality of the building specifications and the exquisite finishes outstand among the most demanding luxury villas.

A beautiful state of the art Porcelanosa ceramic floor that emulates colonial wood runs throughout the entire villa's floor, inside and outside. Large format ceramic pieces cover the walls in the master bedroom and the living room.
